WHO'S WHO

These MAC students were named to the Who's Who of Junior Colleges this year: (L to R) Sarah Howell, Cathy Bush, Martha Neville, Laura Fisher, Bill Clarke, Mike Kuhn, and Hal Boehm. Not pictured: Ann Murphy.

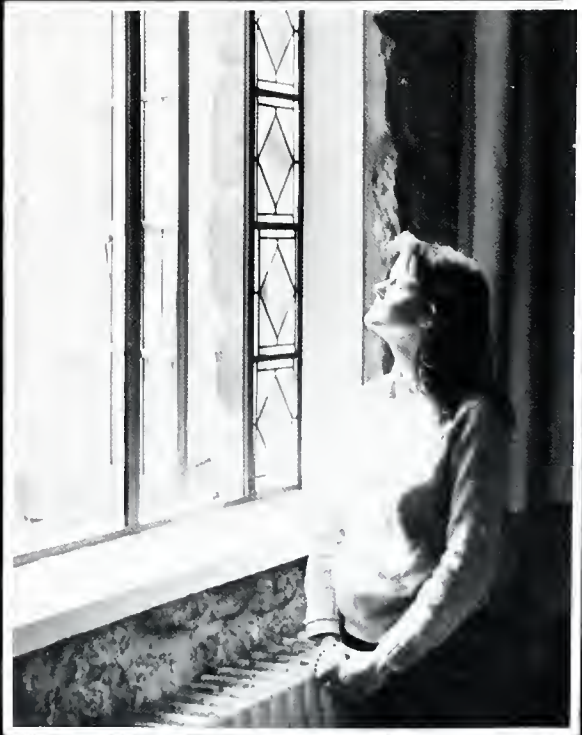

The following students became the new members of the PTK honor society. They are: Kate Garvy, Robin O'Dell, Hal Boehm, Bobby Stone, Teresa Goodson, Polly Benson and Jean Gunter.

NEW PTK MEMBERS

MONTREATIANS

TALENT AT MONTREAT

Since Montreat students have a lot of talent, the talent shows tend to be quite an outlet for talent filled individuals. At least three times a year, students are given this opportunity and it proves to be a time of great entertainment to the audiences.

CHAPEL AND CONVOCATION

Twice a week, chapel and convocation provide a time of inspirational thought and music as well as break from classes.

CHRISTMAS TIME

Christmas is always a special time at Montreat. The students get into the Christmas spirit by decorating the lobby's and attending the many activities that are planned. All of the fun paid off this year for MA-Hall lobby who won for the best decorations.

HOME SWEET DORM

THE MEN ON THE HILL

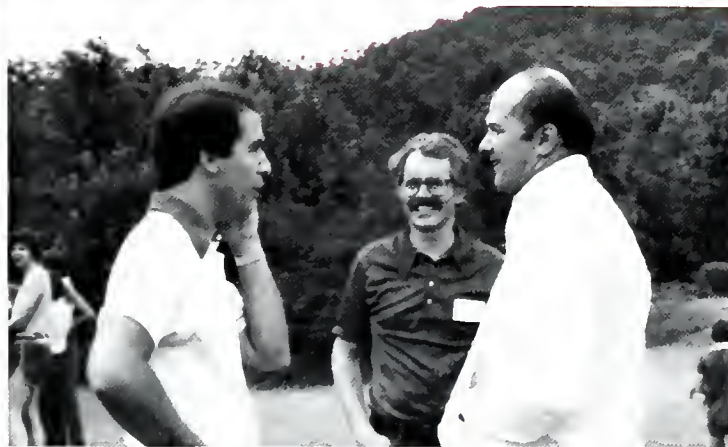

Davis dorm occupies one of the highest spots on campus and anyone daring to attempt the climb will find a great bunch of guys waiting at the top. Famous for its annual festivities at the Davis Jamboree, the dorm is also known for the Christian commitment of most of its residents. It's true when we say the men on the hill are really worth the climb.

HOWERTON HILTON

Come vacation at the Howerton Hilton overlooking beautiful Lake Susan in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Recently remodeled, the semi and private rooms include baths with hot and cold running water. The Howerton men host the annual Valentines Day dance as well as placing great emphasis on hall Bible studies and other spiritual activities.

THE FAR CORNER

Living on a far corner of the campus, Groseclose women find many ways to generate their own brand of excitement. Many go on excursions to such places as Pizza Hutt and Carowinds as well as having late night, after curfew munchouts. The girls are encouraged spiritually by singing and sharing in hall Bible studies and by their new head residents, Martha and John Furman.

A TOUCH OF HOME

"No hot water, again . . ." the only thing that doesn't remind the women of McGregor of home. The lifestyle of McGregor has changed in many ways this year as they have made room for the student Health Center and a new head resident, Jan Gilean. Excitement has taken on different meanings as McGregor experienced a small fire at the beginning of the year. But the smallness of the dorm and Bible activities keep the women very close to each other.

LIFE BEYOND OTIS

The women of Montreat-Anderson Hall use the five flights of stairs to keep in shape, but who wants to keep in shape when you have the advantage of OTIS, the elevator? Besides riding the elevator and socializing in the lobby, life beyond OTIS is a combination of studying, munching out, and phone calls. Unity is felt as the girls grow closer in special times such as hall Bible studies, little sisters, and preparing for holiday activities.

SCA

The Student Christian Association provides opportunities for spiritual emphasis on campus. They share with the students through activities such as Prime Time and Sunday evening vespers. The SCA extends their ministry off campus through regular visits to the Junvenile Rehabilitation Center. Officers for this year are: Tim Ward, President; Duane Deninger, Vice President; Kris Rogness, Secretary; Stephanie Zimmerman, Treasurer.

MEMORIES ARE TREASURES OF THE HEART

*All the treasures of the kings and all the gold on earth
Could not begin to equal what our memories are worth.
Remembering together-times can warm a lonely day.
And thoughts of summer afternoons take winter's chill away.*
